Continuing Medical Education—Terms and Conditions

The International Journal of Gerontology (IJGE) is accredited by the Taiwan Society of Geriatric Emergency and Critical Care Medicine (TSGECM) to provide continuing medical education (CME) to physicians. This journal-based CME activity offers 10 credits when at least 3 questions have been answered correctly. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Method of Participation and Receipt of CME Certificate

To obtain credit for the IJGE CME, you must:

1. Be a TSGECM member or an IJGE subscriber.
2. Print this page out and fill in your name, TSGECM membership number (if any) and e-mail address.
3. Carefully read the CME-designated article.
4. Answer the CME questions.
5. Send your answers via e-mail to ijge.editor@gmail.com to claim your CME credits (at least 3 of the 5 questions must be answered correctly to obtain the CME credits).
6. Your electronic certificate will be mailed to your e-mail address.

CME term of approval:

Issue date: December 1, 2018 Expiration date: March 31, 2019
